

BEST PRACTICES 2021-22

Preface to the Best Practices

In the session 2021-22 the two best practices had been run by the library department. Since then these two practices have become the part and parcel of the students, library and of the college. The purpose of these best practices to inculcate the reading habit among the students and to make awareness of the current knowledge among the students. These two best practices surely help the students to appear in the competitive and other examinations in their lives. These practices will surely help students to love books and they would begin to love and read books. The details of these two best practices is given below.

1. Periodical Book Exhibition organized by Library Department:

Whereas the very purpose of this practice has been explained in the very beginning. The exhibition of book helps students to love books and to read books. As we know that reading makes a person perfect. The exhibition of books manifests the world books. And the students realize that there is no best friend other than books. The exhibition of books makes students' philosopher, an ideal and studious student. From the last year the library is twice organizing the book exhibition in the premises of the college. This best practice is helping students very much to attract them to the library and the students have begun to read newspapers, general books and books of general knowledge and magazines.

2. Newspaper Reading Corner for Student:

In this second best practice the students are asked to notice the special and unique news in the newspaper regarding their career, employment and which will add a special knowledge into their existence knowledge. And then they are asked to cut that news from the newspaper and then they are asked to display it on the main notice board of the library. Whenever the students come in the library they are attracted by that catchy news corner and thus the students get familiar with that special news and information. The newspapers stands have been arranged in front of the library. The students who are having off periods they read the newspaper and whenever they notice some unique information; they inform the librarian attendant. Thus the special

News-corner becomes ready to all the students in the college. Not only the students but also all the teachers and even the visitors are attracted by this news corner.
