NSS Camp

Seven Days' NSS Camp was conducted by the college at Wadoda village under guidance of Dr. Vinod Gawande. The camp was inaugurated by Hon. Shri Baburao Tidke, Principal Dr. Gawande and Sarpanch Shri Raju Thote along with Sopan Gabhane. In this seven days' camp, the volunteers actively followed the cleanliness mission in the village. They spread the message of cleanliness among the villagers. An ancient well in the temple campus was full of garbage. The volunteers along with PO Dr. Dafar and Dr. Zade and Dr. Mohite took out the garbage from the well and filled it in the vehicles provided by local administration. Nearabout 15 feet garbage was taken out from the well. Meanwhile, after the discussion with local authorities it was decided not to go down because of the lack of enough oxygen. However, the local authorities praised the volunteers and expressed their gratitude. This work continued for five days in the morning session. Moreover, blood donation camp was organized in collaboration with Life Line Blood Bank. In the noon sessions, the volunteers along with villagers were enlightened with various current issues like drug addiction, health, superstitions, literacy orientation on agriculture etc. In the evening sessions, the volunteers performed various cultural activities displaying various current social issues and brought awareness among the villagers. In the valedictory function, the secretary of the institute Shri Prasanna
